

Pitcombe Parish Council

Freedom of Information Policy

Freedom of Information Act 2000

Introduction

The Freedom of Information Act:

- Provides public access to recorded information held by public bodies – including local authorities such as Pitcombe Parish Council.
- Applies to documentary information and electronic data held by a public body.
- Obliges public bodies to disclose information/data unless an exemption detailed in the legislation is applicable.

General enquiries

If you have any queries regarding the Freedom of Information Act, please contact the parish clerk (Zöe Godden) by telephone (07742 930521), by e-mail (clerk@pitcombepc.org.uk) or in writing to:

Requests for information

- Requests for information must be in writing and include the enquirer's name and address (a contact telephone number would be helpful though not essential).
- Requests can either be in paper format addressed to Pitcombe Parish Council, Elvyns, Wavering Lane East, GILLINGHAM. SP8 4NX or in electronic format via email to clerk@pitcombepc.org.uk.
- When requesting information, the enquirer does not have to mention the Freedom of Information Act nor the reason(s) why the information is sought.
- The enquirer does not necessarily have to be resident in the parish of Pitcombe.
- The enquirer can be an individual or an organisation.
- The parish clerk is responsible for responding to requests.
- Pitcombe Parish Council has a duty to respond to all requests by informing the enquirer whether or not it holds the requested information and then supplying the information (except where an exemption applies).

- Charges can be made in respect of disbursement costs (copying, printing, postage etc) to reflect the costs incurred in meeting a request.
- Charges will not be made for staff time in sourcing information if the estimated cost is less than £450.00 or 18 hours.
- Requests can be denied if the staffing cost necessary to retrieve/supply the information is greater than £450 or 18 hours (as per exemption 12). Alternatively, a fee notice can be issued setting out the intended amount to be charged for the supply of the requested information.
- Requests can be denied (wholly or in part) if an exemption applies. The Freedom of Information Act contains 32 exemptions but not all of them are applicable to Pitcombe Parish Council. The exemptions that are most likely to apply to Pitcombe Parish Council are listed below (the list is not exhaustive).
 - i. If the request exceeds the cost limit (as already mentioned).
 - ii. If the requested information is accessible by other means.
 - iii. If the requested information is intended for future publication.
 - iv. If the requested information would prejudice the effective conduct of public
 - v. affairs.
- Requests for personal information in respect of the enquirer him/herself cannot be dealt with by the Freedom of Information Act. Such requests should be submitted in accordance with the Data Protection Act.
- Pitcombe Parish Council is statutorily obliged to respond to requests within 20 working days. The day after the request is received is the first day of the 20 (working) days.
- If a request is too vague and/or insufficiently clear, the enquirer will be contacted for clarification. However, the 20 days response timescale would commence the day after a sufficiently clear request has been received.
- If Pitcombe Parish Council does not hold all the requested information, it will supply the information it does hold and provide guidance as to whom to contact to obtain the remainder of the information.
- If the response is not satisfactory, the enquirer can request a review by contacting the chairman of Pitcombe Parish Council (please mark correspondence as “private/confidential”). The chairman can be contacted at his/her home address/telephone number/e-mail - the details of which are displayed at <http://pitcombepc.org.uk/councillors/>
- If a review is requested it will be completed within 20 working days (or within 40 working days in exceptional cases).

- If the review(s) is not satisfactory, the enquirer has a right of appeal to the Information Commissioner (contact details below).
